

6 August 2021

About youth policy in an international group

The discussion on youth policy and the promotion of social activity and non-formal education among young people was the main topic during the international meeting with the participants of the “Cities for YOUTH” project implemented by the Starachowice Commune under the Erasmus+ Program in partnership with the City of Santar in Portugal, Klaipeda in Lithuania, and non-governmental organizations - Institute of Research & Training on European Affairs IRTEA from Greece and ACD LaHoya from Spain.

In the Regional House of Culture in Kielce participants of the project were met, among others, by: the marshal Andrzej Bętkowski, the chairman of the Sejmik Andrzej Pruś, the director of the Chancellery of the Sejmik Marta Solińska-Pela, the director of Regional

House of Culture in Kielce Jacek Sabat and members of the Youth Regional Assembly of the Świętokrzyskie Voivodeship